Note 1:

Certain IRA's have some or all of their assets managed by investment advisors. These accounts are classified by Intrust under both the IRA designation and the Investment Advisor/ Custodial Plans designation. To achieve a more accurate presentation of assets under administration by Intrust, the double-counted assets are deducted from the total assets under administration.

Note 2:

These are accounts in which Intrust only provides bookkeeping services and does not act as trustee or custodian or take responsibility for any assets.
